QUEEN JOAN WHITNEY will reign over the 22nd annual Palm Springs Desert Circus, being selected yesterday at a combined meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and the Desert Circus Association. Joan Whitney Named 58 Queen

Joan Whitney, TV singer and dramatic star of "Studio One" has been named Queen of the 1958 Desert Circus, it was announced yesterday at the Desert Circus Deputies Luncheon at Romanoff's on the Rocks.

At a combined meeting of the Desert Circus Association and the Chamber of Commerce, a correspondence was read from Governor Price Daniel of Texas in which he said that Miss Whitney "ought well represent the State of Texas as Queen of the Desert Circus."

THE 22-YEAR-OLD singer from Chicago won the heart of the Texas Governor during the visit by the Palm Springs Invaders to Austin last week.

The Queen, even before her appointment, was named a member of a special committee which will travel through all the communities from Indio to Los Angeles, stopping in each community to promote the Desert Circus and to invite the Mayors to the resort during the weekend. Now she will make the goodwill trip as Queen.

AND, WITH THE selection of Queen Joan Whitney, the Desert Circus Association has put into high gear the plans for the 1958 edition of the biggest affair in the desert.

Five days of top entertainment and fun are planned, starting with the Western style Bavarian Beer Festival Wednesday, the annual Night-on-the-Town Thursday; the colorful Kangaroo Court on Friday, the beautiful parade, the Big Top Ball, and the Texas Rangers Dance Saturday, and on Sunday, the final day, The Texas Brunch and the midget races at the Polo Grounds.

Midwest Plagued by Snow, Rest of Nation Has Sun

By UNITED PRESS

Snow, heavy rain and gale force winds in the Midwest were tightly sandwiched in between two broad sunny areas today on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

An active low pressure area in the Southern Plains touched off snowfalls in the Rockies, spreading eastward to Nebraska where seven inches of new snow were reported at one point. Further south winds up to 81 miles per hour shipped through El Paso, Tex.

THE U. S. WEATHER Bureau reported that heavy rains pelted Central Oklahoma and North Central Texas during the night. Many points received a half-inch of rain or more.

Earlier in the storm which began Tuesday, severe thunderstorm and possible tornado warnings had been issued for parts of Central Texas. Livestock owners in the North Central Plains had been warned against wet snow and cold rain.

Today's forecast showed clearing skies in the far Northwest, bringing a fair weather picture west of the Continental Divide. Snow flurries in New England gradually diminished, giving way to a generally clear weather pattern along the Atlantic seaboard.

Twelve Parcels of Indian Land Are Offered for Sale by Bid Process

Twelve parcels of Agua Caliente Indian Reservation land, including DeMuth Park, were today offered for sale in the first large resort area Indian land sale noted in recent years.

The 12 parcels include 217 acres located within the city limits of Palm Springs, according to announcement made today by C. Z. German, of the Palm Springs office of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

GERMAN SAID that invitations for sealed bids are being mailed to "those persons who have indicated an interest in purchasing Indian lands here."

German also noted that sale of all allotted lands involved is dependent, on notice filed by Oliver O. Clark, on the outcome of United States District Court action entitled Segundo vs the United States.

German suggested that prospective bidders consult their title companies for any questions concerning the effect of this notice.

SEALED BIDS FOR these properties will be received at the Palm Springs office, Bureau of Indian Affairs, 509 Industrial Place, until 10 a.m. May 8.

Bids will be publicly opened at that time, German said.

Appraised values of the properties concerned will not be disclosed, in accordance with Bureau policy, German noted.

Additional information and copies of bid forms may be obtained at the Palm Springs Bureau office or the Sacramento area office, P. O. Box 749, Sacramento 4.

THE 12 PARCELS offered for sale include the following:

Five acres located in the NW 1/4 of Section 22, owned by Albert Welmas; with 144 feet of frontage on South Palm Canyon Drive. Business frontage is zoned general commercial, the rest is zoned guest ranch. Subject to highway

No Tax Cut Decision Now, Ike Reports

Economic Figures Do Not Warrant Immediate Cut

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower said today he sees no need for a decision now on cutting taxes.

He told his news conference that economic figures he has seen including those on unemployment Tuesday, in his opinion do not require a tax cutting decision at the moment.

THE LABOR AND Commerce Department reported Tuesday that March unemployment rose 25,000 to 5,198,000 while employment rose 323,000.

The President said he is keeping the tax matter under constant study but indicated that it could be several months before a decision is made to cut taxes—if that becomes necessary.

HE POINTED OUT that there are 62 million people with jobs, that the public has a great amount of savings and that the Federal Reserve Board has taken actions to ease credit.

The President said this led him to the conclusion that there are real grounds for believing the nation's economy is going on the upgrade one of these days. But he said he would not say when.

WHEN A REPORTER asked what the people could do about the recession, the president gave a clipped one-word answer—buy.

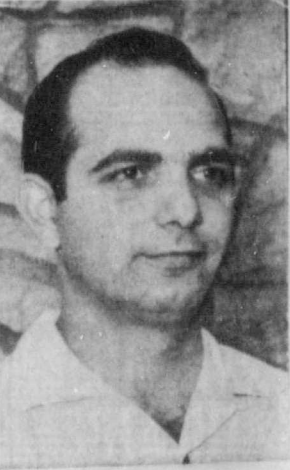

When the reporter asked what they should buy, the president said—anything. However, he said he did not mean that people should buy carelessly but should do so selectively and get what they want.

MARY CARLIN Unseated the Mayor . . .

FRANK BOGERT Potential new Mayor . . .

GEORGE BEEBE, JR. Unopposed winner . . .

Bogert, Mary Carlin Upset Nathanson, Mayor Sanborn

A pretty 29-year-old Palm Springs housewife scored the biggest upset in Palm Springs political history when she unseated Mayor Jerry Sanborn in yesterday's councilmanic election, and a second upset was seen when Frank Bogert defeated incumbent Jerry Nathanson for the District 2 seat.

District 6 candidate George Beebe, Jr., took an easy victory in his district, with Herb Burns tallying 6 votes and outgoing councilman Frank Miller taking one vote on write-ins. Beebe's vote totaled 61.

IN THE CONTROVERSIAL race in District 2, Bogert tallied a total of 223 votes to defeat Nathanson by a margin of 45 votes. In third place, with 150 votes, was Bud Southern.

District 2 recorded a record turnout for voting, as 726 out of the registered voters went to the polls. Other candidates in the district had the following tabulations: Joe Palozzi, 78; Hiram Gordon, 76; Lawrence Chatman, 18; and W. Mack Davis, 3.

EVEN WITH THE light voting in District 6, all three districts combined turned out a 36 per cent vote.

In statements by the candidates this morning, each expressed appreciation to their constituents for their votes and their support.

GEORGE BEEBE thanked the voters of his district and said that he would "do all I can for my district and the town."

Mary Carlin said, "It is wonderful to know that the people have this confidence in me to elect me. I sincerely hope that at any time that any of them have any problems in which I could be of help that they will come to me and I will help them in any way I can. I owe my victory to the people that voted for me and I sincerely, from the bottom of my heart, want to say 'thanks' a million times—I will never forget you."

WHEN ASKED BY the Desert Sun who she hoped would be the new Mayor of Palm Springs, Mrs. Carlin said "I think it will be Frank Bogert." About political problems facing the administration now, Mrs. Carlin had nothing to say "until a little later. The only comment I want to make is to thank the people who voted for me and to tell them that I will not forget the platform I ran on—the improvement of streets on the north end as well as throughout the entire city."

Newly elected councilman, Bogert, who was subpoenaed as a witness in a Los Angeles trial today, was not present for comment, but last night, on hearing the news of the victory, thanked his many supporters.

THE TWO OUTGOING councilmen are veterans in local politics. Sanborn served on the city council since 1953, when he was appointed to serve out the unexpired term of Charlie Farrell. In 1954 he ran for re-election and won the position.

Nathanson served on the city council for eight years, and at the previous two elections, defeated his leading opponent by approximately the same margin by which he lost yesterday—40 to 50 votes.

The City Council will meet for a luncheon meeting Monday and a council meeting Tuesday, at 7:30, at which time it will canvass the ballots of the election. The newly elected members take over their chairs on the council on April 30.

Banks, All Shops Close Their Doors

Firing Heard Throughout Cuban Capital

HAVANA — Widespread shooting broke out in downtown Havana today and a bomb blast opposite the prime ministers office knocked out all electric power.

It appeared rebel leader Fidel Castro's long-heralded all-out offensive against the government of President Fulgencio Batista was under way.

AT 11 A. M. REBEL raiders invaded a radio station in suburban Havana and forced announcers to run a record proclaiming that "the general strike is about to start."

One bomb exploded near the United Press office in the arcade of the Hotel Sevilla Biltmore.

Banks in the area immediately closed their doors and workers fled for cover. Shops in the area also were closing.

POLICE WITH tommy guns and army intelligence took over the Prado, Havana's main street, and began a block-by-block hunt for rebel gunmen.

The blast near the prime minister's office was preceded by an apparently unsuccessful rebel attempt to raid the national armory in old Havana.

THE SHOOTING was only a block from Naval headquarters on the waterfront. Naval guards fired short bursts of machinegun fire to clear the streets.

This dispatch was telephoned to the United Press in New York. The sound of sirens and gunfire was clearly audible over the telephone.

The outbreak here coincided with reports that Guerilla warfare had spread from rebel-infested Oriente province to Las Villas and Camaguey provinces.

Gardena Voters Keep Gambling

GARDENA — Gardena's gambling operators were assured today of remaining in business as final election returns showed voters overwhelmingly approved of the city's six draw poker clubs.

A proposal to outlaw draw poker was rejected by a vote of nearly 3-1 in Tuesday's balloting with an estimated 70 per cent of the city's more than 12,000 registered voters turning out.

3 Area Post Office Buildings Are Proposed

Three resort area communities were today included in a list of sites for new post office buildings announced by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.

The communities of Cathedral City, Palm Desert and La Quinta were named among areas "definitely" scheduled for new post office buildings which will be under construction by early fall.

Summerfield said that $3,291,000 is to be expended for construction of the new postal facilities. He also listed various communities that might be "possible" post office sites if Congress passes legislation raising postal rates.

Vice President?

Stratton Backed Candidate Loses

CHICAGO — Gov. William G. Stratton, considered in some quarters as 1960 Republican vice presidential timber, suffered a setback today when his choice for the state treasurer's nomination was upset by a GOP factional foe.

The Republican treasurer's race highlighted an otherwise dull primary, the first in the nation for 1958. The election also saw the fatal shooting of a berserk gunman who threatened voters in a Chicago polling place.

ON THE BASIS of unofficial returns in the treasurer race from 7,092 of the state's 9,859 precincts, a veteran campaigner Warren Wright had 212,842 votes to 179,262 for Louis Beckman, the GOP "organization" choice for the post.

The light vote Tuesday, one of the lowest totals in state history, was blamed on a lack of national issues. It appeared the total vote would be under the record low of

THE WORLD WAR II year of 1944 when only 1,428,685 persons cast ballots.

BESIDES STATE treasurer, voters nominated candidates for state superintendent of public instruction, Congress, and state senators and representatives.

Only three of the state's 23 incumbent congressmen, all opposition state Republicans, had opposition and they won handily. They were Reps. Noah M. Mason of Oglesby, Leo E. Allen of Galena, and Robert B. Chipfield of Canton.

IN THE TREASURER'S race, Beckman jumped to an early two-to-one lead, largely on the basis of Chicago returns, but Wright forged ahead by 11 p.m., when he piled up large margins in heavily Republican downstate districts.

Although Stratton never publicly endorsed Beckman, the Kanakake state representative had the backing of the state GOP organization which Stratton heads.

Cohen Arrest Not Imminent; Police Argue

HOLLYWOOD — Police today denied reports that mobster Mickey Cohen would be arrested for impeding evidence in the Lana Turner-Cheryl Crane-Johnny Stompanato knife killing of last Friday.

Cohen claimed he would be arrested for turning over to newsmen a packet of scorching love letters sent to his ex-henchman Stompanato by passion-smitten movie star Turner.

A jurisdictional disagreement between Beverly Hills and Los Angeles Police apparently was responsible for Cohen remaining free.

Beverly Hills Police Chief Clinton Anderson said, "The apartment where Cohen got the letters is in Los Angeles territory. It would be the Los Angeles district attorney who would have to make the arrest."

Said the D.A.'s office, "The killing took place in Beverly Hills. Any arrests will have to be made from there."

"This is great news for me," Mickey grinned.

Circus Official Pleased With Early Response

Mac McDonald, co-chairman of Desert Circus, reported today that he was exceedingly pleased with the first returns from the appeal letter for Desert Circus.

The letter, requesting a donation of $10 or more for Desert Circus activities, was mailed Friday to more than 1,000 merchants, hotel and business people and, according to McDonald, has already brought responses from Bermuda Palms, Dorothy Gray, Crest View Hotel, Palm Canyon Lodge, House of Murphy, Casa Blanca, Mamer Shreck Air Transport and Carlos Men's Shop.

The unusually quick response to this letter was attributed by McDonald to the increased interest in this year's Desert Circus because of the new approach and the adoption of the theme to salute Texas.

OPENING A BANK ACCOUNT for "Big Steve Mesick," Orvil Zappe, manager of the Security First National Bank in Cathedral City, takes the initial $2 from the dog. Originally started to bring Russell Mesick's mother to the Desert from Michigan, the account may be the start of a fund to put speed limit signs up on Highway 111 at the south entrance to Tramview. One of the signs was torn down a few months ago, and after many calls to San Bernardino and Sacramento, it has not been replaced. Russell Mesick said that if the sign is not replaced soon he would start collecting a fund to buy speed signs for the State Division of Highways. (Desert Sun Photo.)

Rate Increases Expected to Hike Earnings

Three recent rate increases and one that is presently pending should offset a decrease in per share earnings experienced by California Water & Telephone Company during 1957. President Chester H. Loveland reported in the company's annual report to stockholders released this week.

The company gained two water rate increases in 1957 and early 1958 that are calculated to produce added annual revenues of about $250,000. In addition, a multi-message unit telephone rate increase went into effect in the Los Angeles area that should produce more than $1,000,000 in new revenues in 1958.

A BASIC TELEPHONE rate increase application has been filed with the California Public Utilities Commission which, if granted in its entirety, should produce another $1,000,000 annually, the report states.

The California utility reported operating revenues during 1957 reached an all-time high of $17,722,301, exceeding those of 1956 by 16.6 per cent. Net income amounted to $2,544,460, a gain of 2.4 per cent over the previous year.

EARNINGS PER common share on the average number of shares outstanding during 1957 were $1.51 compared with $1.55 on the average number outstanding during 1956.

New highs were also reported in the number of customers served and new plant facilities constructed.

Famed Schoenfeld Trio to Present Second Program in Music Society's April Festival

The famed Schoenfeld Trio will present the second program in the Palm Springs Music Society's April Festival, Sunday, April 13.

The Schoenfeld group, rated as one of the world's great trios, will be heard in a chamber music program at El Mirador Hotel auditorium at 4 p.m.

THE TRIO will also appear at the festival's closing program Sunday night, in Beethoven's "Missa Solemnis."

Selections programmed for the Schoenfeld Trio Sunday afternoon include "The Beethoven Trio," followed by "The Rave" Trio." Final selection for the group is Dvorak's "Dumky" trio, which derives its name from the "Dumka Dance" of South Russia. Renowned equally as soloists and chamber music players, the Schoenfeld ensemble has been acclaimed by American critics for the past years.

EUROPEAN ARTISTS comprising the trio are sisters Alice and Eleonore Schoenfeld, cellist, and Siegfried Schultze, pianist.

A native of Yugoslavia, Alice Schoenfeld started playing violin at the age of three and made her first concert tour at the age of five. After the war, she rapidly gained recognition as one of the leading violinists in the European concert field.

IN ADDITION to recitals, radio and television engagements, Alice Schoenfeld played as soloist with leading philharmonic orchestras, making more than 500 appearances with a repertoire of 27 violin concerti.

She came to the United States five years ago and recently became an American citizen. She now lives in Pasadena.

Siegfried Schultze started his career touring three continents with the late violinist, Bronislaw Huberman.

Lana Turner Wanted Daughter to Have Happy Childhood After Her Own Experiences

By VERNON SCOTT

United Press Hollywood Writer HOLLYWOOD — A mother's bitter tears sting Lana Turner's beautiful face today in the knowledge that her own failures are responsible for her daughter Cheryl's knife slaying of mobster Johnny Stompanato.

More than anything else, the blonde screen beauty wanted 14-year-old Cheryl to have a happy childhood.

LANA'S OWN YOUTH was blighted by tragedy, neglect and cruelty. She wanted things to be better for her only child. But Cheryl's plight is infinitely worse than anything that ever befell her movie-star mother. She has killed a man.

Lana Turner, whose real name was Judy, loved her father dearly. He was a happy-go-lucky man who was murdered in a San Francisco crap game when his red-haired daughter was only 9 years old.

WHEN HE LIVED he was a lively companion for his sensitive daughter, but a poor provider. When her parents separated, two years before "Tex" Turner was bludgeoned to death, Lana was farmed out to some "friends" in Modesto, Calif.

She was treated worse than a scullery maid. She made breakfast, prepared dinner, did the family washing and ironing and was beaten for the slightest mistakes.

HER MOTHER visited Lana

one day after a particularly brutal beating and, seeing her daughter, black and blue, took Lana back to live with her in San Francisco. It was then Lana learned of her father's murder.

So Lana wanted a normal home life for Cheryl, but not badly enough to make the necessary sacrifices.

Cheryl's father, Steve Crane, was divorced by Lana when the girl was still an infant. Thereafter she knew two other fathers, millionaire Bob Topping and movie "Tarzan" Lex Barker. Between, before and after those marriages, Cheryl watched her mother date a parade of playboys and good-time Charlies.

A GANGLING, LEGGY filly who claims little of her mother's beauty, Cheryl spent much of her time with servants and in private schools. When she was old enough to read the headlines provided her with information about her mother that few little girls would find comforting. But there remains a fast bond between mother and daughter.

SOMETIMES IT seemed as if sober faced little Cheryl provided the major share of stability and security in their broken family life.

Last year the tensions at home and the snippings of school friends took their toll on Cheryl. She dramatically decided to "run away" from her madcap mother.

She was found in Los Angeles' skid row and reunited with Lana.

Crane also was present when the wretched girl was released by the police.

THE LIMELIGHT captured Cheryl again three months later when she tumbled from a horse in Estes National Park, Colo., suffering a fractured vertebrae and slight concussion. Again Crane and Miss Turner rushed to her side, and again, though briefly, Cheryl knew the warmth and security of having both parents with her for a bedside party.

'Silence Gives Consent' Should Be Considered

The old adage that "silence gives consent" seems to have been largely overlooked in the current discussion concerning the recent questionnaire sent out by the Chamber of Commerce testing sentiment of business licensees regarding the proposal to double fees and use the additional funds to build a 2,000 seat convention hall.

With only about one-third of the 1,000 cards mailed by the Chamber to licensees having been returned it is apparent that the so-called "silent vote" is twice as large as the "active" vote.

Since the City Council has set May 6 as the date for a public hearing on the Convention Hall matter, it is quite possible that as the date approaches and interest quickens through the activities of the proponents and opponents, that many more of the outstanding cards will be marked and returned in the Chamber of Commerce poll.

Meanwhile, as in all other queries of public opinion, even including official elections, it can be assumed that the majority of active "no" votes were prompt in being cast while the "Yes" vote is slow in responding. Also, that those not heard from have no particular protest.

As matters now stand approximately 180 favorable votes have been returned and 135 in opposition, meaning that only about 15 percent of those to whom cards were mailed are actively against doubling the business license fee as a means of building a Convention Hall.

The announced opposition to the Auditorium plan by the contractors association "because the City favors a right to work law" indicates that a portion of the "NO" vote has no bearing whatever on the merits and need for a suitable hall to attract more convention business to Palm Springs.

Undoubtedly the majority of as yet unreturned cards were sent to retail, hotel and real estate categories, all of whom would stand to benefit in greatest measure by the bringing of more and larger conventions to the City.

Since the final expression in the proposed project is still several weeks away, it could well be that the forces favoring it will be much larger and more apparent at that time.

In any event, the entire matter should be determined upon its own merits. It is regrettable that petty squabbles and "spite" have entered into the balloting. In every such case there is only one consideration of paramount importance and that is the welfare of the community as a whole.

There is no question whatever that a sizeable convention hall is badly needed and would bring added benefits to everyone living in Palm Springs regardless of what method of financing supplies the funds for its construction.

Afterthoughts on the Reuther Hearings

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Some of the ideas on Labor-Management relations, for which the Senate McClellan Committee is fishing, will be found in quiet pools, far from the dashing rapids of scandal and violence.

Senator Sam Ervin is a home-spun small-town boy who never quite left his environment behind him. The Senator rocked back on his heels in the marble corridor outside the Caucus Room hearings. He allowed that Walter Reuther was the inevitable result of our national disease—bigness.

WHERE THERE ARE giant corporations, says the amiable Senator from Morgantown (N.C.), there will always be giant unions to match. We have a few huge firms which monopolize the manufacturing of the nation's motor cars, farm machinery and trucks.

The United Auto Workers, to deal with General Motors, Ford and the rest, grew to 1.5 million members. The UAW affiliated with the CIO. The CIO affiliated with the AFL. The giant concentration called AFL-CIO has 16 million workers, more than our entire military force in World War II. What does it spell? It spells political power, but it is often pronounced Walter Reuther.

A cure for bigness? We haven't found it yet.

"YOU HEAR TELL," says Senator Ervin, "that the remedy is anti-trust laws for Labor. But what good would that do? The anti-trust laws haven't kept the corporations small."

Was Reuther a dangerous man? Senator Ervin, a one-time Judge in his State's Supreme Court, couldn't pass sentence on the evidence he was hearing as member of the McClellan Committee. Reuther was giving answers that seemed to favor the private enterprise system.

BUT THE SENATOR, a practicing philosopher, would say one thing. It took a man of great character and moral fortitude to have power and not to become dangerous because of it. Ervin was fishing in the pools of thought. He was staying away from the roar and splash of the waterfalls.

So was Senator Jack Kennedy, the thin man with the quick step of going somewhere. Part of the crowd, certainly part of the press corps, had come to the Reuther hearings to see what Kennedy would do. Young Democrats from the North, "going somewhere" in national politics, do not get there by being Labor-baiters. In the other hand, a statesman who aspires to national leadership won't make it by showing undue deference to a Labor boss. Maybe Kennedy would duck it.

BUT HE DIDN'T. The day before Reuther testified the Senator from Massachusetts did what a Senator from Michigan Pat McNamara, dared not do. Kennedy signed a McClellan Committee report which was a fierce indictment of corruption in the Labor movement.

In another slight scuffle, just offstage from the Reuther hearings, Senator Kennedy tangled with a AFL-CIO President, George Meany, the only man who outranks Reuther. The Senator and Meany disagreed about the former's bill to require more disclosure of how union funds get spent.

BUT IN THE Caucus Room, Kennedy went to the quiet waters. He said he was against strike violence. So was Reuther. The Senator was against mass picketing. The Labor boss didn't deny that his union had been guilty in the Kohler strike of both. There was no clash between Kennedy and Reuther.

But these questions, quietly came to the surface. Could a Labor boss incite his men to violence? Could the same boss command them to abstain? Or did the causes for strike mostly arise, as Reuther tried for three days to prove, from local conditions and human passions.

A THOUGHTFUL businessman, no friend whatever of Laborites, was interested when I told him what Senator Ervin had said. This corporate bigness from which the nation suffers—the businessman wanted to talk about that.

In a nutshell, he said, the country's major economic problem was its productive genius. Our American civilization has learned to bring forth an abundance from its factors and farms. But that is only half of the necessary operation. Production—yes. But consumption—there's the rub.

"NOW YOU'VE GOT to say for Reuther that he performs a major function in the free enterprise turnover. He gets the high wages with which his members can keep raising the living standards, without which we would have more surpluses than we do. Of course, Reuther mustn't be allowed to go too far. He needs opposition. It's good for him, and good for us. But he has his uses."

These are the quiet pools. Here is where the water runs silent and deep.

Next week the Circus
In all its glory
As Texas is saluted
So be attired
In Western clothing
Show up all spurred and booted.

The above is a reasonable substitute for the verse I originally intended to write.

But after 43 minutes and 22 seconds trying to find a rhyme for Circus, outside of ink and ink and ink, neither of which I thought appropriate, I scrapped it and took the easy way.

YES, JUST ONE week from today the 23rd annual Desert Circus comes to town.

For a five-day run, from April 16 to 20.

In the old days the Desert Circus ran a full week.

There was one objection to that, says Freddie Watson, in recalling the old Circuses.

"Unless you owned two Western shirts, it was bad on the windward side before the grand finale."

THE POLICE have certain initials they use for various law infractions. Like HBD for "had been drinking" and the more familiar DWI for "driving while intoxicated."

Judge A. D. Mitchell of San Bernardino County Superior Court told me the other day that many people are guilty of DWI and never get a ticket.

"Driving Without Intelligence," he calls it.

MISSED AN ITEM last Friday. Harry Oliver of Desert Rat Scrap Book fame, had himself a birthday last Friday.

He reached that three score and ten mark, which added up, makes 70.

Decided that it was a good time for a resolution — he was never going to shave again.

As a safety measure he said he had rolled and smoked his last cigarette. From here on in he's a pipe smoker.

"No danger of smoking them too short," he figures.

AM GLAD TO NOTE in the public prints that Sir Winston Churchill is now reported fully recovered. Winnie had the same ailment I did, or for the sake of protocol, let's say I had the same miseries Winnie did.

Was worried when his illness stuck around so long. Was afraid mine would too.

And I was getting tired of swaying like a reed — bending backward to drop pills in my mouth and bending forward so the doctor could call his shots.

FOLLOWING last week's in vasion by vacationing youngsters a kindly woman said to me: "We shouldn't be too hard on them. After all, there is a lot to be said for the younger generation."

Sure, but this being a family paper, I can't say it — here.

"The aspirin is depleted
"And the kleenex will not last."

How is it that a man can be a tiger one day? And the next is struck down in his prime? Unfair, I call it.

Everybody has colds in our neighborhood. But some of us are more high spirited than others. We suffer more. That is my opinion. I am not one of your clodish, primary tones. When I feel bad, I feel BAD!

THERE ARE A number of man's ailments that call forth nothing but amusement: Sunburn, hangover and the common cold. If you ever have these, nobody takes you seriously.

"What you need is a double hot toddy, ha, ha," they cry.

WELL, MAYBE I DO. But I do not wish to be told so. I wish a sympathetic audience while I describe my symptoms.

On people like this I breathe. I urge my virus to float over and strike the blighter. Fly away, little virus, fly over yonder. Give it to him.

On top of this, I have a sore typing finger. How I got this seems to kill everybody.

I PLAY A GAME with my young heir. He pats me on the back of the head. And I reach back and grab his hand. He gets hysterical with laughter.

Well, he was patting. And I was grabbing. And when I was well suckered into this game, he gave my arm a cunning judo twist you would not believe in a two-year-old.

MY HAND SKIDDED off his forearm and my finger hit the top of the car. WOW! Every time I reach for a tissue, I have to pull it out with the thumb and second finger.

Sometimes I forget and it hurts all over again. It is about the size of a small banana. And this plus my sneezing sends everybody into gales of laughter. I am a card.

A New Low in Lows for Market

NEW YORK—Now TV's censoring the low necklines on record albums.

When Steve Allen plugged Marie McDonald's "The Body Sings" album, somebody at NBC took the precaution of painting out some of Marie's cleavage (isn't that a new low!—no pun intended). Marie, at El Morocco later with Murray Rosenberg, said she may next do Ed Murrow's show. What a Person to Person ... Mike Todd Jr., a real nice young man, is expected to take immediate steps to settle the complaint of Joan Blandell who said Mike Sr. (her ex) owed her $80,000. He'll probably settle other claims, too, to protect his father's name.

Marilyn Monroe got her hair cut real short—for her ... Martha Hyer sneaked into town to meet Gene Kelly (or somebody) ... Bob Stack, Erin O'Brien and a whole company are off to Spain to film "John Paul Jones"—Spain having been chosen because it's cheaper and because parts of it resemble Virginia. Stack leaves behind his wife, who's expecting; Miss O'Brien leaves behind her husband, to take care of their children. Erin's top ambition on her first trip abroad: to have an audience with the Pope.

Susan Strasberg was lunching on one of the expensive dishes at the Forum, and, upon finishing, inquired, "Can I take the rest of this home to my dog?"

"Do you have a dog?" asked the headwaiter.

"No," she admitted, "but I've got a brother."

While being interviewed on TV about his reportorial past, a friend of ours (Gillon Wright, English professor at Miami University, Oxford, O.)—mentioned he most enjoyed talking to Will Rogers about his cowboy days.

But at home his small son said, "Daddy, you were very funny." "Funny?" said Wright, who'd meant to be serious.

"Sure, you said Will Rogers' but we knew you meant Roy Rogers."

The boy's grandfather, Prescott Wright, who's in his 80s, cracked out, "Who's Roy Rogers?"

Too's Shor was playfully rapping his close friends Joe DiMaggio and Frank Sinatra who'd asked him to attend a Boys' Town of Italy dinner. "Don't you like Italian kids?" Sinatra twitted him. "Certainly," boomed Shor. "I like Gina Lollobrigida and Sophia Loren."

Things are even bad in Texas—they're ordering one-color Cadillacs—Elmer Reilly ... Della Reese claims the designers of the sack dress must know where the bodice is buried ... Today's Daffynition: "Hope Chest—If a girl's got a lot of chest she's got a lot of hope"—June Bastiani, Gallipolis, O.

Lisa Kirk's steady (saw 'em at both the Colony and the Le Pavilion) is Orrin Lehman ... Clark Gable's "Run Silent, Run Deep" gave Hecht-Hill-Lancaster another smash hit ... Edgar Bergen says he likes to work and will do almost anything "except another weekly TV show" ... Some top Wash'n Republicans already admit they've had it and are making plans for "private business" starting next year.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL ...

Musician Bobby Sherwood wed singer Phyllis Dorn, formerly of "Bells Are Ringing" ... Carmen Basilio'll do a comedy bit in his pal Mickey Rooney's Las Vegas act ... Grace Metalious' att'y, Charles Rothenberg, wants to introduce the Calif. community property law to N.Y. ... Rock 'n' roll nabob Alan Freed'll open Miami's Vagabond Club as a non-alcoholic cafe for teen-agers ... Marisa Allasio, featured in "The Seven Hills of Rome," also beautifies Dude magazine.

Havana hotels are slicing their staffs ... Will Hugh Owen be named Paramount's new production head? ... Boxer Jake LaMotta's ex-wife Vickie is a showgirl in the Jimmy Durante chorus line ... A popular singer did an NBC-TV show recently and sneaked out a side door to duck his wife's subpoena servers ... Sarah Vaughn's the latest U.S. singer signed for the Brussels Fair.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Jayne Gets Her Wish

HOLLYWOOD — Jayne Mansfield gets her wish. Fox will let her by-pass her usual dumb-blonde wiggle-and-giggle bit in her next picture, "The Sheriff of Fractured Jaw." It's a Western in which she'll play a gambling hall queen and England's Kenneth More a Britisher who peddles firearms to the Indian fighters of the Early West.

Nat "King" Cole hung a eight-karat 10th anniversary diamond on his Maria's ring finger ... Paramount is paying Patti Page to play Danny Kaye's wife in "The Red Nichols Story."

IT'S A HARD, HARD world when a fairly well-known star like Virginia O'Brien has to travel 1,500 miles from Hollywood to play a saloon stand (the Cave Club in Vancouver, B.C.) when she's seven months pregnant. The management disapproved of her appearance, so all hands agreed to cancel half of Virginia's two-week date at the spot (besides, it was Lent and business was lousy).

Another one-time star, Rita Johnson, is now running a dress shop on Hollywood Boulevard. She buys old clothes from movie stars and sells them in her shop. George Gobel: "I hear Elvis Presley's fans are planning to erect a statue in his honor but had to give it up because you can't hardly find statues with hinged hips no more!"

I COUNTED 46 top stars, from A to Z—Anne (Baxter) to Zsa Zsa (Gabor)—at Fox's "small" preview of its big, big picture, "The Young Lions"—a beautiful movie that wears an autumn aspect, like a wedge of geese flying south, like a lone bird circling endlessly over the ocean.

"Lions" is saddening yet beautiful, sad because of its man's inhumanity-to-man theme, beautiful because beauty, after all, can be defined as something that throws into pathetic evidence some of the unbecoming things of life. As for its star players, Marlon Brando, Monty Clift and Dean Martin are ONLY great!

EDDIE CONSTANTINE, the American lad who had to go to Paris to become a movie star (and one of France's biggest!) will make his first English-language picture for United Artists in June. It's called "Count Seven" and it rolls in Naples June 1 with David Miller producing and directing.

Howard Hawks is hailing Frank Sinatra to co-star with John Wayne in "Bull by the Tail" at Warner Bros. Sinatra's spot? He would play a deputy sheriff who becomes a drunk.

Faye-Kaye-Olay Parlay: Frances

BOB CROSBY raced over to the Riviera in Las Vegas following his own solo stint at the Sahara, same spa, to fill in at the last minute for Mickey Rooney, laid low with a virus. Dennis Crosby's casual sum-up of the evening: "So maybe I'm prejudiced, but I dug Uncle Bob all the way."

Lloyd's of London, the outfit that insured the Hargitays for $1,000,000, would have run for the hills if they'd been ringsiding at the Tropicana in Vegas when Mickey slipped on a fallen cufflink while swinging Jayne around during their acrobatic turn, causing Miss Mansfield and her musclemen to come crashing to the floor. But the Lloyds would have come running right back because the only damage was one skinned knee—Jaynie's.

Bob Hope says he's happy "Bridge on the River Kwai" copped the best-picture-of-the-year Oscar. He's been working on a deal with producer Sam Spiegel, when the solid slice of celluloid has finished all its screenings around the world, to cut it up into souvenir toothpicks!

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: It is only April and already my folks are starting up with me about going to summer camp. I am 12 years old and hate camp. I went last year and had a terrible time. They say I am lucky that they are willing to spend the money on me but I think they are glad to pay it to get rid of me for two months. Mother says if I don't go to the camp I am going to sit on the porch all summer. And she can make me do it, too. Please help me. CAMP HATER

DEAR CAMP HATER: Better go, willingly ... but first, get over the notion that you "hate it." It's a wonderful opportunity to learn to live with others. Appreciate it.

DEAR ABBY: Now what would you think of a grandmother who would send her grandchild a can of salted nuts, a crossword puzzle book and a con-i book for Easter? I ask you because this child is only 13 months old. We don't feed her nuts yet. She can't work the crossword puzzle and doesn't read. Should I just skip it or do you think this woman needs a keeper?

DEAR INQUIRING: Perhaps she got the presents mixed? If she is mentally incompetent, she doesn't need a keeper—she needs a doctor.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow with three children. Twin girls age 3 and a son age 8. A wonderful widower asked me to marry him and I have accepted. He has two daughters, 11 and 9.

My question is: Should we take our children along on our honeymoon? We think it would give our children a good start in learning to live together as a family. Our friends have offered to keep them and think we should go on our honeymoon without our children. What do you think, Abby? NATALIE

DEAR NATALIE: A honeymoon should be a twosome. Leave the children home.

CONFIDENTIAL TO ANDY: Thanks for the tip, but if I ever need dentures I will let a dentist make them. I'm afraid I might "gum up the works!"

THREE LOS ANGELES musicians were turned into a traveling minstrel group this week when Bob Barker, emcee of NBC-TV's "Truth or Consequences," sent the trio on a 930-mile trip, singing "Night and Day" all the way. And by "night and day," Barker meant not the song but 24 hours a day. Traveling in a van, they are shown as they passed through Palm Springs en route to Truth or Consequences, N. M., in time for the three-day Ralph Edwards Fiesta, to be held there April 11, 12 and 13. The musicians are, left to right, Herb Owen, a Los Angeles machinist and guitarist; Bill Mowery, an inspector at North American Aviation, and pianist, and John Forte, Los Angeles bus driver and drummer. Babbage Reports Scholarship Survey Started

John Babbage, Riverside attorney and candidate for the Republican and Democratic nominations for Congress for Riverside and Imperial Counties announced this week that he is conducting a survey of scholarship needs.

The purpose of the survey is to find out to what extent, if at all, there is a surplus of private scholarship funds due to a lack of qualified student applicants. Information regarding such scholarships is being sought from the leading universities.

Babbage reported that there is an ever increasing need for specialized and higher education.

"Our future progress and security depend on the training and ability of young men and women throughout the nation," he said. "There are many people interested in the scholarship program for higher education and the possible need for federal assistance, and I will have the results of this survey at the time of my address to the Southern California meeting of the Junior Women's Clubs to be held at Disneyland at noon on April 19."

Mrs. BURSON, FRANCES Fry, Mary Kennick, Nancy Pitman, Tony Schneider, Dotty Lomms, Fay Sabin and Mrs. Bellamy, all very fashion conscious members of the local J. W. Robinson staff, have taken to the sack dress in a big way. They are completely cognizant that this is the year of an absolute fashion trend change, that fashion cycles usually pick up and develop a new trend every five years. This is the red letter year. NEW BABY SITTING classes started last night and are scheduled for every Tuesday night at the Lenox, left, and Kathy Haddock, right. Mrs. How-Palm, who is taking the baby sitting class, is giving last minute instruction to the baby sitters before leaving the house.

'Better Baby Sitting' Class Acquaints High School Girls With Answers to Emergencies

If her charges are bitten by a dog; if the house is suddenly plunged into darkness; if there's a knock on the door late at night... no matter what the crisis... the recent graduate of the Palm Springs Youth Center course in Baby Sitting can meet any baby sitting emergency with confidence.

The members of this class acquired child care know-how from various qualified individuals who lectured on all phases of baby sitting.

BECAUSE THE HOME is perhaps more hazardous than a busy freeway, instructions were given as to the hazards lurking in each room therein.

Kitchenwise, the girls were warned to leave handles of pans turned toward the back of the stoves, to keep matches in containers, to keep bleaches, poisons and ragged edges of tin cans out of reach of eager little hands.

In the event of a gas leak, the gas company should be notified immediately and, in addition, the girls were told to see to it that their charges are bundled off to neighbors.

A BABY SITTER going to a job should take with her a flashlight, a pad and a pencil. Then, if the lights go out, she won't stumble around in the darkness. On the pad she will write down instructions and any messages that come over the telephone.

She should always ask parents where they are going, how long they will be gone and where they can be reached in case of emergency. She should also ask the name of a neighbor who will lend a helping hand in case of an emergency. Also, the telephone number of police and fire departments should be kept handy.

HEREWITH ARE Ten Commandments for Baby Sitters which the girls learned:

1. In case of fire, bundle up the youngsters and get them out of the house. Call the fire department from a neighbor's house, then call the parents.
2. If the child locks himself in a room and can't get out, reassure him. Try to get in the window. Call the parents from a neighbor's house.
3. Personal telephone calls should be limited to several minutes. Long distance calls never are permitted.
4. AS TO SNACKS, don't eat unless parents have said that you may. Then, take only a small amount.
5. Don't play radio or TV without permission. Then, play it softly.
6. Check on your charges from time to time while they are sleeping. Beware of sleeping bags of various sorts.
7. Make sure that your charge's bath water is not too hot nor too cold. Keep electrical equipment out of child's reach. Always drain and clean tub.
8. DON'T LOCK yourself out of-

New Helicopter Household Moving Method to Be Demonstrated at Convention

Two major industries have combined forces to revolutionize the methods of handling large items of household goods, and will present a demonstration at El Mirador Hotel at 4 p.m., Saturday, during the 40th annual convention of the California Moving and Storage Association.

The industries, aviation and household goods moving and storage, will show how helicopters can be used to move very large items of home appliances and furniture into off-the-ground level homes and apartments.

"THE FLEXIBILITY of the modern helicopter is scheduled to render obsolete the 'bugaboo' which has long plagued the moving and storage industry... moving extra large items of furniture and appliances into off-the-ground level units, particularly in those cases where there are no freight elevators or adequate room to maneuver the units anywhere other than on the ground floor."

It was explained by John Carlson, president of the association, "In instances of this type people have to store such furniture, or sell it, which is costly in either case. The miracle of the modern aviation age, however, has now eliminated this necessity."

"THE TREMENDOUS lifting power of the helicopter, and its ability to carry items in a sling and hover in mid air, makes it possible to maneuver large items of household furnishings in the air so that they can easily be handled through French doors or other types of openings, at any height above the ground."

This will be the first public demonstration of this modern handling system, and is sponsored by the association which represents some 500 moving and storage companies throughout the state. It will feature a Model 47G2 Bell helicopter operated by California Rotors of Glendale, with Global Van Lines of Los Angeles in charge of the actual demonstration.

Apartment House Blasted to Bits

WEST LOS ANGELES — An Ocean Park apartment house was nearly blasted to bits today in an explosion that caused an estimated $50,000 damage, injured a 37-year-old woman tenant and hurled chunks of the plaster walls 100 feet.

The two-story residence threatened to collapse on the street and traffic was re-routed around the block. Mrs. Margie Smith, who lived alone in one of the two large apartments on the second floor, was taken to Santa Monica Receiving Hospital and treated for shock.

Police Officer Leon Pantell of the West Los Angeles Division said the blast—heard for miles—apparently occurred in the first floor garage area from an undetected gas leak or a defective hot water heater.

Garden Club Flower Show On Saturday

The east porch or terrace of Marion Davies' world-famous Desert Inn will be the show case for the eighth annual flower show of the Palm Springs Garden Club.

The show, which is open to the public without charge, and entries may be made by anyone living in the Palm Springs area.

The Garden Club, which is composed of Village home owners is devoted to encouraging the development of flower gardens in the home areas, and the annual flower show is held to show Villagers and visitors what can be done here. Actually the wealth and beauty of the flowers shown each year amazes the many who drop in to view and vote.

All arrangements for the show are under the direction of Harry Yesley and Dr. Walter Fifield, co-chairmen.

Exhibits have been divided into eight different classifications, as follows: Miniatures, not over three inches high; Individual specimens: A—Roses; B—Iris; C—Snapdragons; D—Petunias; E—Camellias; Arrangements—Flowers with rocks; Dry Arrangements; Bouquets—Mixed—Other flowers with roses; Bouquets—Single Varieties of Flowers—Sweet Peas, Pansies, Roses, etc.; Arrangements of Wild Flowers; Cactus.

The co-chairmen have announced that all exhibits will be judged by expert judges and ribbons will be awarded in accordance with the judgment of these experts.

All exhibits must be received between 8:30 and 10 a.m. on Saturday morning, April 12, so the judges will have time to arrange and judge the exhibits before the show is opened to the public, at 1 p.m. It will remain open until 9 p.m.

Desert Circus Week got its traditional kick off yesterday noon . . . as the Sheriff's deputies gathered at Romanoffs to receive their immunity badges . . . Kangaroo Court summons . . . and the usual "get-the-money" pep talk . . . Publicity pictures will show you how they looked . . . in western garb . . . everything from shorts to skirts . . . and some with Palm Springs hats . . . and practically everyone with mad handbags or flowered baskets . . . The next time all get together will be for the Night on the Town . . . when they'll gather at Noel Clarke's Ranch Club for buffet . . . before boarding buses to raid the night spots . . . selling the buttons and handing out the summons they received yesterday . . . Desert Circus Week is starting to roll . . .

One of the biggest events of next week . . . and probably the most glamorous . . . will be the Texas Big Top Ball that will be held at Chi Chi on Saturday night, April 19 . . . taking over the Starlite Room . . . It's under the co-chairmanship of Maggie Hicks and June Clark . . . and the girls have BIG plans . . . The all star show will headline Sammy Davis Jr. . . . "Mr. Wonderful" of the Broadway show . . .

The stage acts will be only part of the show . . . which always extends into the audience . . . where guests will be in glittering Desert Circus western costumes . . . and there are probably going to be as many celebrities in the audience as on the stage . . . Governor Price Daniels of Texas . . . and the mayors of San Antonio, Houston, Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth and El Paso are all expected . . .

Maggie and June say . . . forget the fancy circus costumes this year . . . and go western . . . and there will be beautiful and unusual prizes for the most magnificent . . . There will be prizes too . . . for the best dressed couples in the Grand Parade that will move across the stage . . . Dottie Buckingham is heading the decorations committee for the Ball . . . and that indefatigable Orph Frank heads the ticket selling . . .

The Big Parade on Saturday . . . the fashion show luncheon at Ocotillo on Friday . . . the barbecue at Desert Inn that night . . . the Texas - Bavarian Beer Festival at El Mirador . . . Wednesday night . . . are among other events that will make next week a busy-busy time . . . And, of course, all the Texans in town will be riding out on that Tuesday night haywagon - chuckwagon ride . . .

Add: date in your future . . . Charlie Farrell is planning a Dixieland Party out at the Racquet Club . . . for the night of April 24 . . . No details yet except that the Brickhouse Seven Minus Two will be playing for the dancing . . .

Ginny Simms is back in the Village . . . fresh from New York triumphs but will only be here a fortnight . . . before she heads for Florida and a three-week singing engagement at the smart new Carillon . . . Ginny lost 20 pounds while she is away . . . and looks bud great . . .

Ranch Club dining the other night were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bendix and the Alan Ladds . . . The Michael Wildings are back at the Racquet Club . . . and Tony Franciosa and his wife Shelley Winters . . . Weekend diners at the Ranch Club included the Bob Mitchums . . . and the original film Peter Pan Betty Bronson . . . who was with her husband Ludwig Laurhass . . .

Out at Palm Desert the Manases and Cliff Henderson will hold the formal opening of Firecliff's new Satellite Room Thursday evening . . . I've been hearing about this beautiful spot . . . but haven't been out there yet . . .

The Stanley Rosins have sent out invitations for the wedding of their daughter Barbara Jean . . . to Stephen Marshall Platt . . . The young couple will wed on Sunday, April 27 . . . in an afternoon ceremony in the gardens at

John Morris Paintings at The Playhouse

An exhibition of some twenty paintings by Village artist, John Morris, is now on view at Palm Springs Playhouse for the final two weeks of the 1958 theatre season. Morris spent his boyhood in Laguna Beach and was selling his paintings at the Laguna coastline for two for $5 at the early age of fifteen. Painting has been his source of livelihood ever since and even when in the service he found himself appointed to combat artist corps.

Upon his return to civilian life he spent some time in England where he had been commissioned to paint a mural in Sussex and later went to Paris, painting and visiting the galleries from which he absorbed the inspiration for the individual style he has developed without any instruction.

Morris will have an exhibition of his paintings in Brazil this summer through the invitation of Mme. Amarel Peixoto, wife of the Brazilian Ambassador to the United States, who saw some of his work on a recent visit to the Village.

It was Morris' Desert Circus clown painting which was presented to Texas' governor, Price Daniels, on the recent Ray Ryan Circus good will junket. He has been painting desert scenes for the past ten years, coupled with portraits and humorous characterizations.

El Mirador . . .

Grace Pope who's at the Desert Inn . . . will be flying to Palm Beach on April 12 to be the guest of Mrs. James Norris aboard her 110-foot yacht Osceola . . . sailing for Nassau and Cat Key . . . and returning to Palm Beach en route to New York the inland water way . . . making many overnight stops . . . Grace will visit her son and daughter Alexander and Barbara Shields in New York and plans to return to home base at the Beverly Hills Hotel the latter part of June.

12 Fastest Sports Cars to Race Here this Weekend

Nation's Speediest Entered

Twelve of the fastest sports cars in the United States have been entered in the Sports Car Club of America's 13th running of the Palm Springs Road Races April 12 and 13.

Fans will see eight Ferraris pitted against the 4.5 Maserati of Texan Carroll Shelby; Lance Reventlow's Scarab Mark I; the Kurtis-Buick of Bill Murphy; Max Balchowsky in the Balchowsky Buick Special; and the Morgensen Special, driven by owner-builder Dick Morgensen of Phoenix, Arizona.

THIS MARKS the debut of Reventlow's Chevy-powered prototype, one of a team of three cars slated to compete in Europe in 1959, in hopes of recapturing the sports car world championship for America.

Piloting the ferocious Ferraris will be John von Neumann, 3-litre Testa Rossa; Richie Ginther, 2-litre Testa Rossa and the Berlinetta Gran Turismo Coupe; Willy Daetwyler of Switzerland, 1957 World's Mountain Climbing Champion, in von Neumann's 2.5 litre Testa Rossa; Dan Gurney of Riverside, 4.9 Ferrari; the 250 Gran Turismo Coupe of E. Forbes "Robbie" Robinson, former Australian champion; and the Ferrari Mondial of Bruce Danison.

For Shelby and Gurney, the Palm Springs race will be their last United States appearance. In May, they leave for Europe to join the Aston-Martin racing team.

ADDING GLITTER to the star-studded field will be Porsche lead-follower Joe Playan of Los Angeles; Eldon Beagle, Sacramento; Jean Pierre Kunstle, Carmel; Jack West, San Francisco; and Jack McEneaney and John Peters of Sherman Oaks. An exciting race should be in store, as all six will be driving evenly-matched Porsche Spysders.

Out of a 12-car team, entered by West Coast Racing, Inc., a trio of Aston-Martins will be on hand. Drivers include Bob Oker of Long Beach; Keith Hoyt and Bill De-Creeff.

A. C. Brits pilot, Bill Klingensmith will be on challenge West Coast Racing's 4-car Bristol team made up of Jim Founts; Paul Cote; Gordon Crowder; and the organization's President, Bill Love.

CORVETTES are always a threat to foreign machinery, and this speedfest will be no exception. Set to compete are: Burbank chauffeurs, Jim Parkinson, Art Mugg and Andy Porterfield; Lek von Kaesburg, San Bernardino; Fred Grant, Los Angeles; Scott Briley, Vista; and Bill McKeeney, Tucson, Arizona.

A Corvette has also been entered in the Ladies Race by Shelby Hunsinger, Linda Scott, A. C. Bristol; Marion Lowe, Alfa Romeo; and Barbara Windhorst. Sebring Morgan, are among the other feminine drivers to appear.

In addition to the Nation's top sports car drivers, spectators will see three Indianapolis drivers driving the Veteran Cars of Race Chairman Lindley Bothwell.

THE RACE will match 1954 Mexican Road Race winner, Ray Crawford, in a 1935 Hudson, against Johnny Tolan and Henry Banks. Tolan, 1952 National Mid-Gent Car Champion, pilots a 1909 Benz, while Banks, 1950 National Big Car Champion, drives a 1930 Studebaker.

Palm Springs will be represented in the races Joe Catron and Dr. Robert Bertrand. Catron is from Woodfin Motors, Cathedral City and Dr. Bertrand is a Tramview resident.

Completing the 2-day racing program will be a Fathers and Sons match race in quarter and half mile races run simultaneously. The family event takes place on Sunday at the start-finish line, between the two main events.

ALBANY, Calif. — The big chestnut gladiator horse, Silky Sullivan, was leaning against the wall in his stall, mooching carrots and sugar lumps from the passers-by.

He looked about as ready to run as any plow horse.

"DON'T LET THAT fool you," said trainer Reggie Cornell. "He's relaxed only until he gets onto the race track. This is a running horse."

"But around the stable he's as friendly as an old shoe."

Silky was standing there with his eyes half closed. A groom was putting wrappings around his legs. Soon a blacksmith came by to look at the shoes. Silky looked him over, then went back to dozing. The blacksmith pulled the far away back leg across Silky's stomach to look at it from the wrong side. Silky went on munching.

IT'S HARD TO BELIEVE that this is the big boy called "Mr. Cardiac."

He has given his followers more exciting moments than any horse in recent years. His worshippers are like a cult. He can do no wrong. Even if he is 50 lengths behind the leaders as he sometimes is, they still have faith that he'll win -- and most of the time he does, if the distance is a mile or more.

When he gets to Churchill Downs next week to start puping for the Kentucky Derby, he'll be the least excited animal (and this includes humans) in Louisville.

He loves cameramen and the flash of lights doesn't even cause him to flicker an eyelid. He loves to nuzzle the cameras. And if you ever give him a carrot or a lump of sugar, he'll pester you to death every time he sees you.

Covington, Snider May Miss Start

By TIM MORIARTY
United Press Sports Writer

The Milwaukee Braves and the Los Angeles Dodgers today faced the possibility of opening the 1958 season without star outfielders Wes Covington and Duke Snider.

Covington twisted his left knee in an exhibition game against the Dodgers at Austin, Tex., Tuesday and may miss next Tuesday's opener against the Pittsburgh Pirates. He was sliding home on the business end of a squeeze play in the 13th inning that gave the Braves a 5-4 victory.

Snider's trouble also is centered in the left knee, which was operated on last December. There has been some swelling in the knee this spring and Duke told one reporter Tuesday "I think it'll have to be drained."

HOWEVER, HE LATER declared "There may not be any need for that draining" and added he "will try to play" in today's game against the Braves at Dallas.

The veteran center fielder has appeared in only 13 games this spring and has been unable to play more than two days in succession, all of which would indicate his knee still is unable to withstand sustained pressure without developing some soreness.

The San Francisco Giants, meanwhile, received good news when X-rays revealed Willie Mays suffered only a mild hematoma (bruise) just above the elbow when struck by a pitched ball in Monday's game against the Cleveland Indians at Austin.

MAYS SAT OUT Tuesday's game at Corpus Christi, in which the Indians rolled to an 11-7 victory over the Giants, but will be back in center field for the season opener.

LOS ANGELES — Young Ken Venturi, currently the hottest golfer on the professional golfing circuit, was a solid favorite today to win the $40,000 Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas Nev., April 24-27.

Latest odds on the sensational San Francisco pro were quoted as 5-1 Tuesday by Wilbur Clark, chairman of the committee for the tournament to be held over the Desert Inn course.

Clark told a "tee-off luncheon" Venturi was still the favorite despite Arnold Palmer's victory in the Masters' Golf Tournament. He said Palmer was 8-1 along with Billy Casper Jr. and Gene Littler.

Indians Fight To 4-4 Draw With Arabs

Indians Come from Behind to Tie It Up; Still Unbeaten

By JOE HENDERSON, JR.
Palm Springs High School's Indians were still undefeated in Riverside County League baseball competition but they had one blemish on their record today—a tie game with Coachella's Arabs.

The two teams battled to a 4 to 4 deadlock in eight innings of play Tuesday, the game being called under an RCL ruling which prohibits any inning being started after 6 p.m.

COACHELLA, defending champions in the RCL and also with a 1-0 record this year, jumped into an early lead on their home diamond and went into the sixth inning leading four to nothing.

Then Joe Lewis, Indian catcher, laid the wood on one of Arab Gomez' gopher balls and noled it out of the park to make it 1-4.

ANOTHER RUN followed Lewis' swat and in the seventh the Indians scored two more to tie it up.

The eighth was scoreless and then the game was called.

Larry Segundo hurled a 5-hit, but two of them were homers by the Arabs which put them ahead early in the game. He walked six but fanned eleven.

Stan Cirata had a big day at the plate, hitting three singles in three official at bats. Lewis and James got the other two Indian hits. The draw left the two teams deadlocked for first place.

The Desert Sun Wednesday, April 9, 1958 11

ONE OF MEXICO'S most colorful polo players, Irwin Anisz, who played in the first game at Eldorado Country Club's new field earlier this spring, will be back next Sunday with the Eldorado team in the final game of the season.

Final Polo Match Planned Sunday

Sparked by the brilliant playing of Bob Skeene, one of the world's top-ranking polo players, Eldorado Country Club Polo team scored another win over the strong Red Diamonds from Pomona last Sunday on the Eldorado field.

The score was 9 to 5. The strong-riding, long-hitting of Skeene, backed by the skillful defense of Bill Tevis, "Mr. Polo", proved the margin of victory.

RETURNING THE compliment for the cheers accorded him, Skeene remarked after the game that the Eldorado field was the most beautiful and fastest he has seen.

Polo comes to an end next Saturday in the desert area with the final match between Eldorado and the Red Diamonds.

This weekend another star player will perform for the Eldorado team, Irwin Anisz, one of Mexico's best polo players.

ANISZ FLEW from Mexico City to play in the opening game here and was so impressed with the beautiful surroundings at Eldorado that he will be back in the club's line-up next Sunday for the final game. He will team with Lisle Nixon, Bob Smith and William Tevis.

Ted Pierce, Bill Mayberry, Allen Scherer and Kenny Walker will make up the augmented Red Diamond team.

Alcohol Can Give You A Dim View!

ALCOHOLIC beverages can dim your eyesight as much as sunglasses do at twilight. Some scientists claim. Never drink when driving, they warn.

BUT IF your problem is no car to drive, treat your eyes to the excellent buys now advertised in Classified. It's been a good many years since you've had a large selection and big bargains in automobiles you're offered today! See the Used Car columns NOW.

IT IS very important that I find last October. Please write 29 very much. Would like to return them.

Halfway Around the World in 97½ Days

(Editor's Note: Priscilla Chaffey, longtime Village newspaperwoman prior to her leaving Palm Springs is now on a 97½ tour "Trip Halfway Around the World With Side Trips." This is the twelfth account of her experiences.)

By PRISCILLA CHAFFEY

We got a great urge to see the celebrations of Holy Week in Malaga, so we went to Thomas Cook & Son in Las Palmas and acquainted them with this intention.

The travel agent shook his head and looked sorry and said that reservations for Holy Week in Malaga had been sold out for three months and that it was impossible! We riposted: "Tut! Tut! We come from the United States where the impossible just takes a little longer."

HE, BEING BRITISH, pursed his lips and remarked dryly, "The impossible in this instance, madam, is going to take until next year."

However, Norman Peale's Positive Thinking does accomplish miracles. He called up at the eleventh hour and said he couldn't quite believe it himself, but he had reservations at the best hotel in Malaga for Holy Week. The only prob was to get there.

ONE THINKS OF Spain as a small country, but it is not. It is the second largest in Europe and before you get anywhere, you have to first get to Madrid. Whether it's New York, London or Malaga, the take off is Madrid. That's a flight of some 800 miles from Canary Islands, most of it over the Atlantic ocean.

Unfortunately, we not only got to Madrid in fine shape, but we're still there, and the first two days of Holy Week have passed! However, we have a sleeper on the rattler out tonight, so we should reach Malaga eventually.

CAN'T SAY MUCH about Madrid, except it's a hard place to get out of, due to being closeted with transportation facilities most of our time here. We're staying in one of the most beautiful of hotels; monogrammed sheets of fine, pure linen, lots of hot water which is hard to come by in Spain. The waiters in the dining room wear dress suits with lavish tails and white ties and served us this evening the best fillet mignon we ever tasted since our last visit to the Doll House—except that here it is for free, and we like it better that way.

AMERICANS HAVE such a good exchange rate in Spain that it sometimes makes you feel sorry for the Spaniards. An American of modest means can live in luxury here but the Spaniard, alas, must be very rich to do the same.

Had a conference with the American Consular Agent for Las Palmas before we left on the current junket. Thought a run down on Americans in the Canaries might be of interest as they are rare as the dodo bird. Twenty-five registered on Gran Canaria and fifty in Tenerife.

ONE OF THE OLDEST of American Consulates was established in Tenerife in 1807. It was closed in 1952 and the handsome property was bought by a charming American woman who is now the wife of the Italian Consul.

We recently undertook a pretty big project. We went to the post office in Las Palmas de Gran Canaria to certify a letter. Outsid the post office proper sits a busy and agreeable little man behind an iron grill selling postage stamps. There is always a large crowd waiting at the window.

ONE REASON the crowd is so large and the wait is so long is that the stamp seller not only affixes the stamps himself, pounding each one a couple of times with his fist to be sure it's stuck.

Bob Pitchfords Have First Son

RANCHO MIRAGE — The population of Rancho Mirage has increased with the arrival of Master Robert Alex Pitchford, first child of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pitchford, born Saturday morning, April 5, at 10:44 a.m., and weighing seven pounds seven ounces. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Pitchford of Rancho Mirage, and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Owen Peet of La Canada.

Bob Pitchford is associated with Jack McCallum Industrial Designers with offices in Rancho Mirage. Mrs. Pitchford and young Robert arrived home from Desert Hospital Tuesday.

Fire Fighters Show Technique

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Delegates to the National Fire Department Instructors Conference here got a peculiarly effective glimpse into the actual fire-fighting talents, as well as the teaching skill of the city's firemen.

A short time after completing a staged demonstration of their techniques, fire department members rushed to douse a blaze at the hotel where most of the delegates are staying.

San Francisco is 4,150 nautical miles from Pago Pago in the Samoa Islands.

but there is inevitably a long conversation with each customer. What about, we never can tell, because we don't know enough Spanish. But it sounds pretty exciting.

As this particular letter was to be certified we skipped our friend the stamp seller and went into the large rotunda of the post office. It was completely empty except for six clerks conversing behind the long marble counter. Finally one came over, took our letter and inspected it on both sides as though speculating as to the contents. He then handed it back to us and said, "It has no stamps on it."

WE SAID WE KNEW that. We wanted to buy a stamp and certify the letter. "But Senora, we do not sell stamps in the post office. You must go outside." He came around the counter and gallantly escorted us to the crowd around the stamp window.

After a twenty minute wait while Conversation Piece sold stamps to those ahead of us, we got our stamp and returned to the empty post office. The clerks broke up their conversation and we handed in our letter to be certified.

THE CLERK WAS courteous and bland as before, but alas, we had not purchased a stamp of certification and an order. Again he escorted us outside and we took our position at the end of the stamp line. You couldn't get annoyed, because all bottle necks in Las Palmas are such cheerful bottle necks.

The post office system would probably take a life time to understand but of all the towns where we have ever lived, with one golden exception, to wit: Palm Springs; Las Palmas de Gran Canaria has the pleasant atmosphere.

A SMALL BUT typical example of this happened the other day when we saw a recent edition of the Time magazine in a book store. We were fresh out of pesetas to pay for it so we went in and asked the clerk to put it away for us until the next day. He didn't know us from Adam's Old Fox but he insisted that we take it with us and pay him manana, next week, at our pleasure.

Everybody is like that from the flower seller to the taxi driver or the restaurant keeper. It's an attitude, and they can't lose money on it, or they wouldn't be that way. Or maybe they would. Canaries are a simple, friendly and delightful people but something of an enigma to an American. Their attitude toward you makes you want to be an especially good American, as thoughtful and courteous as they are themselves.

"MAKE WAY FOR THE TRAVELERS," was the shout as the group of "invaders" returned from a whirlwind trip through Texas to promote the 1958 edition of Desert Circus. Some 300 people, including businessmen and representatives of the Chamber of Commerce waited in The Center as each of the travelers told of some highlights of their trip through Texas. Everyone who went on the trip talked of the success of the safari and the group brought back a set of horns that measured 5 feet from tip to tip along with the state flag off the capitol of the state.
